RESTAURANT INSTITUTE JOINS WITH NEVADA RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION TO PROMOTE F&B COST MANAGEMENT SUMMITS

Westerville, OH – Restaurant Institute LLC joins with Nevada Restaurant Association (NvRA) to promote the Fall Food & Beverage (F&B) Cost Management Summit September 12-13 in Las Vegas. As an allied member of NvRA, Restaurant Institute offers members discounted rates.

Topics covered are accurate recipe costing, menu engineering, purchasing specifications, forecasting methods, vetting cost control systems and more. Content is designed for middle and top level management.

“We look forward to promoting this event to our members as this represents a great value added service and benefit” stated Tim Hacker, Director of Business Development for the NvRA.

The Nevada restaurant industry includes more than 5,200 restaurant and foodservice outlets, employs nearly 200,000 and annually generates $6 billion in sales. NvRA include restaurants, hotels, casinos, taverns and allied members who are vendors of restaurant goods and services.

The Summits are presented by Mark Kelnhofer, widely recognized cost management expert, international speaker and published author on the subjects. Other Summits will be in San Diego, CA (10/17-18), Orlando, FL (11/7-8), and Dallas, TX (11/21-22). Early registration, up to 30 days before each session, is $695; registration within 30 days is $795. NvRA members receive a discounted rate. Registration can be completed online at Eventbrite at: <http://ri-llc.eventbrite.com/>.
